The Real World

SANTA FE.... A show for painter Ethelinda opens September 1 with a reception at 5 p.m. at Manitou Galleries. It is followed by the International Guild of Realism's second annual juried exhibition on September 15 with a reception at 5 p.m. This group show of classical realism features more than 60 paintings from 45 guild members. The show examines how still-life, landscape, and figurative artworks are being created in the most realistic styles in the 21st century; it includes works by such artists as Sheila Cantrell, Duffy Sheridan, and Donald Clapper.
